

Do you work as a community behavioral health provider and do you have student loans?

Then you need to know about the new Community Behavioral Health Care Professional Student Loan Repayment Program!

Designed to recruit and retain community-based mental health professionals serving in rural and underserved areas in Illinois, the Community Behavioral Health Care Professional Loan Repayment Program provides student loan repayment assistance to qualified mental health and substance abuse professionals.

Apply now for repayment assistance for 2022-2023!

To be eligible for the program, at minimum you must:

- Have an outstanding balance on an eligible educational loan
- Work as a licensed provider in one of the following behavioral health professions: psychiatrist, psychologist (PhD., Psy.D.), advanced practice nurse, physician assistant, clinical social worker, clinical professional counselor OR as a Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC).

Please note that there are additional eligibility requirements, which are detailed fully on the ISAC website. ISAC representatives are also available to answer any questions you may have.

Learn More:

For additional eligibility criteria, an explanation of award amounts, and to apply, visit, www.isac.org/CommunityBehavioralHealth

