Next Steps

- The award will be paid directly to the above-named college. Please review the information for accuracy and immediately notify our office, in writing, of any corrections needed. - Your college will determine the final award amount and the number of disbursements. The amount of the scholarship plus other financial aid you receive cannot exceed the total cost of attendance at the college. If you fail to meet any of the eligibility requirements during the academic year, the entire scholarship or a portion of the scholarship funds may be forfeited.

If this commitment is not fulfilled within the required time for the program, the amount awarded converts to a loan that must be repaid with interest.
